

Promoting Equality

What could we do to help everyone understand how important it was to treat everyone equally and with respect?

What could WE do to promote equality between different genders in our school?

Use this space to write down any of your ideas:

