

How would we want...

In the space below, answer the question and write down what you would want for the people who you love and care about.

1. How would we want the people we love to be spoken to?

Example: Respectfully

Blank space for writing answers to question 1.

2. How would we want the people we love to be treated physically?

Example: Given personal space

Blank space for writing answers to question 2.

