

Activity

WHO AM I?

FAMILY!

Required Resources

- Post-it notes/paper
- Tape

“Who am I?” is a great game to get you all thinking!

To prepare to play “who am I?” use your paper or post-it notes to write the name of a famous person, TV/ film character on each piece of paper or post-it note.

Give everyone a name to attach to their forehead or back, no peeking!

Take it in turns to go around the group allowing each person to ask 1 yes or no question per round.

The person to guesses who they are first, wins!

<input type="checkbox"/> Am I a boy?	<input type="checkbox"/> Do I wear glasses?
<input type="checkbox"/> Am I a girl?	<input type="checkbox"/> Am I a singer?
<input type="checkbox"/> Do I have blonde hair?	<input type="checkbox"/> Do I cook?

...LET'S GO!

Funded and Supported by

Powered by

25

Challenge

WHO AM I?

Now you've got your guessing hats on it's time for some challenges.

ARE YOU READY?

YOUR CHALLENGE ...SHOULD YOU CHOOSE TO ACCEPT

Write out a list of family members to play a unique game of "who am I?".
Examples of family members:

<input type="checkbox"/> Mum/dad	<input type="checkbox"/> Family/ Friends
<input type="checkbox"/> Brother/Sister	<input type="checkbox"/> Uncles/Aunts
<input type="checkbox"/> Cousins	<input type="checkbox"/> Grandparents

Themed who am I?

Choose a theme to play who am I, for example book characters, TV shows, cartoons , films etc. Make sure everyone playing is familiar with the theme you've chosen!

Funded and Supported by

© Sandwell Metropolitan Borough Council 2020

Powered by

